FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

LS 7347

BILL NUMBER: SB 334

NOTE PREPARED: Apr 9, 2007

BILL AMENDED: Apr 9, 2007

SUBJECT: Restrictive Covenants Regarding Modular Homes.

FIRST AUTHOR: Sen. Riegsecker

FIRST SPONSOR: Rep. Moses

BILL STATUS: 2nd Reading - 2nd House

FUNDS AFFECTED: ☒ GENERAL
DEDICATED FEDERAL

IMPACT: State

Summary of Legislation: (Amended) Fiscal Impact On Proposed Rules- The bill provides that certain rules concerning the fire safety, building, and equipment laws are not subject to the requirement that the adopting agency prepare a statement that describes the annual economic impact of the rule on all small businesses after the rule is fully implemented.

Restrictive Covenants on Modular Homes- The bill provides that a deed restriction or restrictive covenant recorded after June 30, 2007, may not prohibit or restrict the erection of an industrialized residential structure on real property. The bill provides that a deed restriction, restrictive covenant, or agreement that applies uniformly to all homes and industrialized residential structures in a subdivision may impose the same aesthetic compatibility requirements on an industrialized residential structure in the subdivision that apply to all residential structures in the subdivision.

Effective Date: July 1, 2007.

Explanation of State Expenditures: (Revised) Fiscal Impact On Proposed Rules- Any state agency that develops impact statements on rules could see a reduction in staff time devoted to fiscal impact statements by this proposal. Future proposed rules concerning the areas of law specified in the bill would no longer require respective impact statements to be prepared.
